

For Immediate Release

Contact:

Amy Yu

Outreach Coordinator

Tel: 650-724-2923

E-mail: amyYu@stanford.edu

Dat Phan to Perform at Tommy T's Comedy Club and Steakhouse in Pleasanton

Dynamic performance by the original winner of NBC's Last Comic Standing

Stanford, CA (August 28, 2008) – On September 3-7, 2008, popular Asian-American comedian Dat Phan will be performing live at Tommy T's Comedy Club and Steakhouse in Pleasanton, California. The show opens on Wednesday, September 3rd at 8:00PM, and promises to be a dynamic and exciting performance for all fans looking for a good laugh.

Dat Phan LIVE in Pleasanton

September 3-7, 2008

Tommy T's Comedy Club

5014 Hopyard Road

Pleasanton, CA 94588

Dat Phan, the original winner of NBC's popular show Last Comic Standing, currently tours live across the U.S. as a headlining comedian. He is also a prominent leading figure within the Asian-American community. Famed for his insightful and culturally insightful comedy, Phan aims to bring a more positive and accurate portrayal of Asian-Americans to mainstream entertainment and understanding in America.

Dat Phan has been listed in The Smithsonian Institution's exhibition of The Top 10 Most Influential Vietnamese-American Individuals.

Representatives from the Asian Liver Center and the Jade Ribbon Campaign will also be present at Phan's show on September 3rd to spread awareness about hepatitis B and liver cancer. Dat Phan, a proud Vietnamese-American, invited the Asian Liver Center in hopes of educating the community about the silent danger of hepatitis B--the leading cause of liver cancer and a major threat to Asian and Pacific Islander health worldwide.

Phan's performance will admit 17-year-olds and older with ID, and 15-year-olds and older if accompanied by a parent or guardian.

###

About us:

About Dat Phan Productions:

Dat Phan is the Original Winner of NBC's Last Comic Standing, and is a Headlining Comedian touring live across the U.S. He has made numerous TV and Movie appearances including "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno", "The Family Guy" voiceover, and "Cellular". Dat Phan Productions is working on several upcoming projects including a live DVD & CD to be released in 2008, and preproduction on a movie titled "Yellow Fever".

Dat was born in Saigon, Vietnam and grew up struggling and poor in San Diego, CA. His culturally insightful comedy inspects ridiculous stereotypes, and shares his experience of being a regular American guy with a Vietnamese heritage. He has been included in The Smithsonian Institution's exhibition of The Top 10 Most Influential Vietnamese-American Individuals.

More info available at: www.datphan.com or: www.myspace.com/dphan

Dat Phan's mission is to bring a more positive portrayal of Asian-Americans to mainstream entertainment and Hollywood. "We want to be seen as more than just martial artists, or bad stereotype token roles in American TV & Movies."

Dat Phan is also available for corporate or private performances. He has performed at countless Comedy Clubs, Universities & Colleges, Casinos, and Corporate events. Notably: Harvard Law, Sacramento Asian Chamber of Commerce, Penn State, Foxwoods, and the U.S. Marine Corps to name a few.

About the Asian Liver Center at Stanford University: The Asian Liver Center at Stanford University is the first non-profit organization in the United States that addresses the high incidence of hepatitis B and liver cancer in Asians and Asian Americans. Founded in 1996, the ALC has grown to become a national and international leader in fighting this global epidemic through outreach, education, advocacy, and research. Visit the ALC website for more information: <http://liver.stanford.edu/>